Director's Message

As we reflect on 2024, I am deeply grateful for the support, dedication, and generosity that have helped propel the Orphanage Care and Support Foundation (OCSF) forward. This year has been one of resilience and transformation, thanks to the collective efforts of our donors, volunteers, and team members.

Our mission at OCSF is to uplift vulnerable children, youths, women, and families by providing education, healthcare, food security, and economic empowerment. In 2024, we expanded our reach, providing more youth with education, ensuring more families received healthcare, and empowering widows toward financial independence.

We focused on sustainable solutions to help individuals and communities thrive independently, witnessing the positive impact of our initiatives. Looking ahead, we remain committed to furthering our mission and addressing the evolving needs of those we support.

On behalf of OCSF, I thank all our partners and supporters for their unwavering belief in our mission. We are excited to continue this journey together, making a lasting difference in the lives of those who need it most.
